Design & Nature

A transdisciplinary journal relating nature, science
and the humanities

A MAJOR NEW INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL

Dear Colleague,

We are delighted to introduce you to the International Journal of Design & Nature.

The International Journal of Design & Nature will act as a forum for researchers from around the world working on a variety of studies involving nature and its significance to modern scientific thought and design.

Throughout history, many leading thinkers in mathematics, engineering and other areas have been inspired by the parallels between nature and human design. Today, the huge increase in biological knowledge and developments in design engineering systems, together with the virtual revolution in computer power and simulation, have all made more comprehensive studies of nature possible.

Scientists and engineers now have at their disposal a vast array of relationships for materials, mechanisms and control. The resulting laws have been painstakingly assembled by observation and analysis and span the cosmic scale of space down to the molecular level of genetics. In particular, they have made us aware of the rich diversity of the natural world around us.

This journal aims to provide a channel of communication between all those working in this exciting new discipline whether they are in academia, research institutes or industry.

BENEFITS TO AUTHORS

The benefits of publishing your paper in this journal include:
